

We hope you enjoy the new wine list here at Fratellis. All of the wines have been carefully chosen to complement our menu and to offer superb value for money. Sourced from many of the definitive wine regions of Italy and the wider world, we have ensured that a wonderful cross-section of award winning wines are here for your consideration.

The sheer diversity and variety of Italian wine means that a choice is never simple and nearly as much enjoyment can be derived from discussing the relative merits of the different grapes, styles and blends on offer as actually drinking them! So explore our wine list and try something different, you may be in for a very pleasant surprise...

The lovely pair of Gazzera wines from Sicily are well worthy of attention, the Grillo offers a light and refreshing white with plenty of juicy fruit whilst the chunky red Nero d'Avola offers plenty of body and flavour. One of the unsung heroes amongst Italian white wines is the Orvieto Classico from Umbria, our Cecchi produced wine is a perfectly crisp yet quaffable example of the region's potential. For fans of world class Pinot Grigio we present the Mezzacorona from Trentino, a former winner of European Winery of the Year, Mezzacorona are renowned for the sheer quality of their wines.

Several of the Reds require a special mention. For devotees of the Primitivo grape, Itynera of Salento provide a sumptuous tippie to match with heartier dishes, whilst those who prefer a lighter wine will not go far wrong with Cecchi's definitive Chianti from their Tuscan heartland near to Sienna. One of Italy's truly great red wines comes from the district for which they are named, Barolo, our Varej is crafted by the experts at Fontanafredda and boasts a casckful of awards to verify its quality.

No wine list would be complete without some cracking sparkling wines, for this we confidently present the exceptional Prosecco from Ponte di Piave along with its pink companion the Aurora, either would complement any celebration.

We hope you enjoy your choice of wine today as much as we have enjoyed selecting them.
